

The rise and fall of JT

by John Thornton received 31/1/20

Selection for a pennant side,
Can cause a lot of grief,
Especially when selectors,
Have the bit between their teeth,

Players names are juggled well,
In line with Murphys Law,
Some placed in Division 1
Some dropped on the floor,

This can cause a strange event,
"The trampoline effect",
To play in Div 5 one week,
Then Division 1 the next,

One player was a victim,
John Turner was his name,
Now bowling in Div 5 again,
He'll never be the same,

The rise and fall of JT,
Was such a telling blow,
The consequence of such a fate,
Is worse than vertigo,

So if you see John Turner,
Or hear his painful cries,
He's not in need of treatment,
Just can't believe his eyes.